SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 16, 1884 PRICE FIVE CENTS The Wrong Bottle-Death. Wednesday afternoon Nathan Ganson, father of Albert Ganson, who resides at the corner of First and Beech streets, by mistake took a large dose of laudanum, which he supposed to be medicine that he had been taking, and from the effects of which he died Thursday morning. Deceased was well advanced in years, being in his eightieth year. The old gentleman purchased the laudanum for Mrs. Ganson, who is affected with asthma and uses it to relieve her sufferings and placed it beside or near the bottle that contained his own medicine, and in some unaccountable manner mistook the bottle of poison for his own. The fatal mistake is a sad blow to his aged wife and son. (see copy in this article in Judd Family Reunion Records, Volume One in the Library of Katherine Krauth, Maroon colored notebooks, # 927.4)

on Detachment Roll July 10/65 at Carver G. H. Washington D.C. Co. was stationed near Petersburg, VA in Spring of 1865. Signed, ? W. Benjamin, Assistant Adjutant General.

I found Alfred Ganson in the 1860 Census, Genesee County, Michigan, 1st Ward City of Flint. I wonder if he is a brother to Nathan because A.S. Ganson was a witness on her application for Nathan's pension. Although, Albert S Ganson, son, may be the witness.
